

Product Name: FINDEL 0.5 mg CAPSULES

Active Substances: Fingolimod

Form: 28 Oral Capsules

Therapeutic indications: FINDEL, in very active conditions, in the treatment of adult MS patients of the RR type in the following situations:

- 1) Patients with relapsing remitting multiple sclerosis progressing as defined by 2 or more relapses in a year and 1 or more Gadolinium-enhancing lesions in brain MRI or a significant increase in T2 lesion compared to a recent previous MRI,
- 2) Patients with relapsing remitting multiple sclerosis whose disease is highly active despite a complete or adequate course of therapy with at least one disease modifying therapy.
- 3) It is indicated for the treatment of adult MS patients in the RR type who cannot tolerate first-line treatments due to parenteral drug use or side effects against the substance used, and who do not have a suitable place for injection in the body for many years.

Posology and method of administration: 0.5 mg x1 daily, Oral